Thanks Tammy,

The guys are here, there is not much touch up. I did point out that one of the chairs cracked in the seat. I can only imagine that happened when one of the children fell over recently. I asked that they just touch it up a bit but he thinks that it needs to be repaired. Mario wants to take it into the shop and work on it. I understand if you need to charge us for that. You have been very reasonable so far. Bob can pick it up when it is finished.

I will send the check along

Thanks and we highly recommend you
